

Internship Role

Löning – Human Rights & Responsible Business is an international management consultancy specialised in human rights. Founded in 2014 by the former Commissioner for Human Rights of Germany, Markus Löning, we provide practical and strategic advisory services to businesses on how to incorporate respect for human rights into their business operations and along their value chains.

We are a diverse and international team of experts from different professional backgrounds, who advise our clients in English, German, Spanish and Portuguese and speak Dutch, French, Hindi, Italian, Luxembourgish, Turkish and Vietnamese.

We are always looking for student interns to support our team of consultants for periods of three months. Our interns are involved in our client projects and work on research projects and the development of tools and products.

Currently, we are seeking interns that are fluent in both English and German but we regularly welcome non-German speakers as interns throughout the year.

As an intern, your responsibilities will primarily include:

- Supporting the consultants in various client projects including in the research of current human rights issues and standards of labour norms in different sectors, supply chains, countries and regions.
  - Examples of projects you will be supporting: developing tools for assessing human rights risks, drafting briefings on international regulatory developments, conducting research on human rights violations
- Supporting the team with administrative and communication-related tasks

What we expect of you:

- A strong interest in social and human rights issues in business
- A team player with good communication skills
- The ability to be self-organised and diligent
- Proficiency in MS Office
- Native German-speaker, fluent in English
- Enrolment at undergraduate or graduate level

What we offer:

- A multinational, young and energetic team and a very collegial and supportive team atmosphere
- A family-friendly and flexible working environment with a charming and cool office in Berlin-Tempelhof
- A dynamic business field with room for your ideas and innovative developments
- Interesting projects with well-known brands and NGOs
- A contract of three months, with a monthly compensation of 450 Euros plus transportation costs (BVG)

If after reading this, you feel like you would be the right addition to our team, please send us your resume with a cover letter by e-mail (max. 3 MB) to: ana@loening.org.
